

Simple rain cap for solar inverter

Overview

This easy to install canopy keeps the rain and snow off of inverters and batteries mounted outside. Multiple canopies can be joined together where there is a need for a longer protection. This cover is made specifically for the SUMRY Hybrid Solar Inverter HGX-4KW-24V, so the size matches that model without guessing or trimming, making it suitable for owners who already know their exact inverter version. 3% CAGR through 2028, driven by expanding utility-scale solar deployments in high-precipitation regions. Asia-Pacific dominates demand (48% market share) due to tropical climates and rapid solar farm. Have you tried out dark mode?
